F 0559 Level of Harm - Minimal harm or potential for actual harm Residents Affected - Some	Honor the resident's right to share a room with spouse or roommate of choice and receive written notice before a change is made. NOTE- TERMS IN BRACKETS HAVE BEEN EDITED TO PROTECT CONFIDENTIALITY Based on observation, interview and record review, the facility failed to provide written notification of room changes for two sampled residents (Residents #4 and #7) out of three residents sampled for room change notification. The facility census was 70 residents. Review of the facility's policy titled, Change of room or roommate showed:-Prior to making a room change or roommate assignment, all persons involved in the change/assignment, such as residents and their representatives, will be given advance notice of such a change as is possible.-The notice of a change in room or roommate will be provided in writing and will include the reason(s) why the move or change is required.-The Social Services (SS) staff can assist the resident to adjust to the new room or roommate by informing the resident and family as soon as possible of the room or roommate change. 1. Review of Resident #4's admission record dated 11/11/25 showed the resident admitted to the facility on [DATE]. Review of the resident's annual Minimum Data Set (MDS-a federally mandated assessment tool completed by facility staff for care planning) dated 12/22/25 showed the following staff assessment of the resident:-Was residing in a room on the back hall of the facility.-Was cognitively intact.-Had adequate vision and hearing.-Understood others and was understood by others.-Had clear speech. Review of the resident's medical record showed no room change notice. Observation on 2/13/26 at 9:04 A.M. showed the resident resided in a room in the front of the building. During an interview on 2/13/26 at 9:04 A.M., the resident said:-His/Her roommate in the front of the building went to the rehabilitation unit in the back and wanted him/her to be his/her roommate back there, so the facility let him/her move back there with his/her roommate. -His/Her roommate went to the hospital and didn't return to the facility, so facility staff didn't let him/her stay in that room.-He/She was not given a written notice of the room change.-He/She talked with SS about his/her room change.-He/She was not sure how long ago he/she was moved up front. During an interview on 2/13/26 at 9:45 A.M., SS said:-The resident was up front before, and his/her roommate moved to the back unit and that resident requested that the resident move to the back with him/her.-The resident's roommate went to the hospital and didn't come back so they moved the resident back up front.-The resident has been back up front about six weeks. During an interview on 2/13/26 at 3:10 P.M., SS said:-He/She did not give the resident a written room change notice.-The previous company did not do written notices for room transfers (the new company took over 10/1/25).-The new company does have a room change form.-He/She didn't want the resident to move from the front to the back with his/her roommate in the first place because he/she knew his/her roommate was looking to live somewhere else.-He/She explained to the resident before moving from the front to the back that he/she would have to move back up to the front if his/her roommate moved out of the facility.-He/She gave the resident at least a one-day notice of the room change from the back to the front unit. During an interview on 2/17/26 at 11:13 A.M., the Director of Nursing (DON) and Administrator said they would have expected the resident/family/next of kin to be notified in (continued on next page)
